This Week's News from Mrs Piper-Hadfield

Well, it has certainly been an eventful week! We loved seeing all of your snow pictures on Tuesday and they are now displayed beautifully in our entrance. It definitely looks like the most was made of a rare snow day!

Thank you to everyone within our community who was involved in yesterday's SIAMS inspection - we appreciate all of your support.

Next week is certainly set to be an exciting one as we have the Christmas Fair to look forward to!

Sparkler Awards:

Isaac Y6 for resilience - nominated by Mrs Bailey

Mr Wakefield for kindness (gritting the pathways to school) - nominated by Thorley & everyone at school

Longford Village Carol Service

The village carol service will take place at St Chad's on Sunday 15th December. This is always a lovely festive evening for our community and so you are all invited to join.

I have been asked if there are 2-3 children interested in doing a reading so if you plan to attend and your child would like to read, please let me know.

Toys, Squishies etc

I have been asked by our mid-day supervisors to just remind our families that children are not to bring toys, squishies etc into school with them.

We don't want children upset due to broken toys or because they have made a trade which they then regret! Thank you.
